

Case Study 1: ESCAPE Travel Agency

ESCAPE is a travel agency offering holiday packages, flight bookings, and customised tours. The company uses a website, Instagram, YouTube, and email marketing to attract and retain customers.

Question 1 (4 Marks)

Analyse

ESCAPE's use of Instagram versus YouTube, focusing on content–platform fit.

Instagram platform is more accurate for a platform like travel agency, the company will be able to communicate through direct message. Produce snapshots, short video reels with exotic locations. It will be a mobile first and also attracts more youngsters.

In the other hand, YouTube is a platform for detailed destination guide, virtual tours of hotels and resorts.

To conclude, Instagram captures attention and builds desire quickly while YouTube give information through extensive content. In my opinion Instagram is more suitable platform for ESCAPE.

Question 2 (6 Marks)

Identify two performance metrics ESCAPE could use to evaluate its digital campaigns and justify their use.

1. Customers likes and views – this help in knowing and securing the number of users using entering the page.

2. customers payments- this will show credibility and trust.

Question 3 (10 Marks)

Using the modern digital marketing Hourglass funnel, explain how ESCAPE travel Agency can guide customers from engagement to advocacy. Support your answer with relevant platform and content examples.

Awareness to engagement.

Instagram polls asking followers to vote on next month's featured destination, YouTube community posts requesting travel tips, and blog content addressing common travel anxieties. The company could create a hashtag campaign like #MyESCAPEmoment encouraging users to share travel dreams, transforming passive viewers into active participants.

Engagement to conversion.

Offering a consultation call or personalized itinerary proposal converts interest into commitment.

Conversion to experience

Provide a mobile app or digital travel wallet with booking confirmations, maps, and emergency contacts, ensuring the journey feels seamless and well-supported.

Experience to advocacy

Feature user-generated content prominently on Instagram and the website, giving customers recognition. Create a loyalty program where repeat bookers receive exclusive perks, VIP customer service, or early access to new destinations.
